

Pia Rantala-Engberg

Ambassador

Embassy of Finland
Rome

Ambassador Pia Rantala-Engberg has served as Ambassador in Rome since 1st of July 2019.

Before that she was Ambassador for Cyber Diplomacy in the MFA Helsinki. In 2011-2015 Rantala-Engberg was Finland's Ambassador to NATO in Brussels and before that Head of Finland's Representation in Ramallah, Palestine. During her career she has also served in Vienna, Rome, Bonn and New York.

During her years in the Foreign Service Rantala-Engberg has dealt years with security policy and also with the issues related to the United Nations. She has held the position of UN Director in the MFA and she has dealt with the UN agenda also in New York, Vienna and Ramallah. She has had the position of the Special Advisor of the Secretary of State in the MFA and in 1992 she worked as Diplomatic Advisor in the OSCE International Secretariat organizing the OSCE Helsinki Summit.

Rantala-Engberg is married to Ambassador (ret.) Per-Mikael Engberg.

