

Antti Vänskä

Ambassador of Finland
to Singapore

Ministry for Foreign Affairs of Finland

Mr Vänskä has served as Finland's Ambassador to Singapore since June 2019 and will return to Finland to work in the Ministry for Foreign Affairs in September 2023.

He joined the Ministry in 1996, and has served in many interesting positions both in Finland and overseas including earlier tenures in Russia, Germany and the United States. He has also worked as a special adviser to two Finnish prime ministers for four years.

Mr Vänskä is an economist by training, and has worked with Finnish businesses throughout his career.

He is married and has two adult children. During his free time, he enjoys sports, reading and music. Having grown up in Iittala, he is also enthusiastic about Finnish design.
