

ERIK LUNDBERG

Deputy Director
General for Political Affairs

Ministry for Foreign Affairs of Finland

Ambassador Erik Lundberg has served as Deputy Director General for Political Affairs since July 2022. Before his present position, he served as Finland's Ambassador to Kenya, Somalia, Uganda, Eritrea, the Seychelles as well as Permanent Representative to UNEP and UNHABITAT (2018-2021).

Erik Lundberg's prior foreign postings also include serving as Finland's Ambassador to Norway (2014-2018), Head of the Unit for Sustainable Development and Human Rights at Finland's Permanent Mission to the UN in New York, Deputy Permanent Representative at Finland's Permanent Mission to The Council of Europe in Strasbourg and Deputy Head of Mission at Finland's Embassies in Canada and the Syrian Arab Republic.

At the Ministry for Foreign Affairs in Helsinki, Mr Lundberg has i.a. served as Ambassador for inclusive Peace and Security (2021-2022) and Director at the Unit for Human Rights Policy (2011-2014). Mr. Lundberg has furthermore worked with various expert tasks at the Departments for Political Affairs and International Trade as well as at the Legal Service.

Ambassador Lundberg joined the Ministry for Foreign Affairs of Finland in 1995. He holds a MSc in Political Science from the Åbo Akademi University in Finland. He is married and has two sons. Mr Lundberg enjoys music, reading and outdoor activities in nature.

Ministry for Foreign
Affairs of Finland