

Ramses Malaty

Deputy Director General

Ministry for Foreign Affairs of Finland

Ramses Malaty is currently the Deputy Director General at the Department for Development Policy at the Ministry for Foreign Affairs of Finland. Prior to his current position, Mr. Malaty was the Director of the Unit for Financial and Legal Development Cooperation Related Matters (2020-2024). Mr. Malaty has served abroad as Deputy Head of Mission at the Finnish Embassy in Nairobi (2015-2020) and Counsellor at the Finnish Embassy in Cairo (2012-2015).

Mr. Malaty joined the Ministry for Foreign Affairs of Finland in 2007. Mr. Malaty has work experience within the Foreign Ministry in various fields namely in development cooperation, trade, political, security and administration related matters. Mr. Malaty is well-experienced in cooperating with international organizations. He has gained a solid understanding of management in challenging country contexts. He is considered a trustworthy and reliable counterpart enabling him to engage with various stakeholders. Over the years, he has brought productive and innovative ideas, which has led him to take up various initiatives throughout his career.

Mr. Malaty has also work experience from the European Commission, Statistics Finland and Finnish Forest Research Institute. Mr. Malaty holds a Master's degree in Social Sciences from the University of Joensuu, Finland. Mr. Malaty is married and has three children.

