5. Members of the U.S. forces and dependents shall not be tried in absentia without their consent.
6. This period of time may be extended by six (6) months as agreed to by U.S. forces authorities and Finnish authorities. Such an extension shall be agreed to unless this jeopardizes the defendant's right to a speedy trial. Any further extensions shall be by mutual agreement.
5. Any period of time spent in restraint exercised by Finnish authorities or custody exercised by U.S. forces authorities shall be credited against any sentence to confinement eventually adjudged in the same case.
6. Except as otherwise agreed by the Parties, confinement imposed by a Finnish court upon a member of the U.S. forces, or a dependent, shall be served in one or more Finnish penal institutions designated for such purposes by the Parties. For purposes of determining whether potential civil liability has arisen out of any act or omission done in the performance of official duty by a member of the U.S. forces, including the civilian component, certification by the appropriate U.S. forces authority that such act or omission was done in the performance of official duty shall constitute conclusive proof of the fact. Finnish authorities may present any information bearing on the official duty determination and U.S. authorities shall take full account of such information and the Parties shall consult as soon as possible. In those instances where Finnish authorities believe the circumstances require review of the duty determination, Finnish authorities retain the option of requesting confirmation from higher U.S. authorities.
