

SIDE EVENT 1: SUSTAINABLE PEACE BUILDING

Segment A: *Safeguarding and strengthening human rights and women's participation

Segment B: *Reintegrating refugees and returnees

CONCEPT NOTE

23 November 2020, 10:00 – 12:00 (Geneva time)

BACKGROUND

The Afghanistan peace negotiations that started two months ago offer new perspectives for peaceful development, after nearly four decades of conflict. While the start of talks is an achievement, in order to ensure a just and lasting peace, the process must be inclusive and participatory, at all stages and all levels of discussion.

The 'Sustainable Peace Building' side event, co-hosted by the Government of Afghanistan, the European Union, and the United Nations Assistance Mission in Afghanistan, will bring together key decision-makers from the Afghan government, the international community and civil society to discuss and promote inclusive and participatory approaches to peace building. The event will be divided into two segments, the first on safeguarding and strengthening human rights and women's participation and the second on reintegrating refugees and returnees. Both segments address key prerequisites for a successful peace process.

The first segment of the event, on human rights and women's participation, will aim to highlight the role of human rights defenders and civil society, including victims' groups, as agents of positive change and enablers to accountable, inclusive results of the peace process, as it moves along. Moreover, it will stress the unique opportunity to make a future peace agreement transformative and include women's human rights at its core – where it rightfully should be.

The second segment of the event, on reintegrating refugees and returnees, will aim to highlight the importance of a participatory approach to return and reintegration, promoting refugees and IDP's self-reliance, resilience and dignity. For return to be sustainable and contribute to peace, a distinct, whole-of-government effort will need to be made to ensure equity in access to government services, employment opportunities as well as access to justice – especially in the area of housing, land and property.

CO-CHAIRS AND MODERATORS

- H.E. Mohammad Haneef Atmar, Minister of Foreign Affairs
- H.E. Janez Lenarčič, European Commissioner for Crisis Management

KEY NOTE SPEAKERS

- H.E. Rula Ghani, First Lady of the Islamic Republic of Afghanistan
- H.E. Seyed Sadat Mansoor Naderi, State Minister of Peace of the Islamic Republic of Afghanistan
- Ms Michelle Bachelet, UN High Commissioner for Human Rights

GENERAL OBJECTIVE

Promote inclusive and participatory peace building, expressing strong support for the voice and leadership of women, victims and human rights defenders, returning refugees and internally displaced persons in setting the sustaining peace priorities for Afghanistan.

SPECIFIC OBJECTIVES

Segment A: Safeguarding and strengthening human rights and women's participation

- Assert the rights of victims as paramount to sustainable peace in Afghanistan, and the need to develop and sustain an inclusive national dialogue on victim-centered justice in the country to that effect.
- Express steadfast solidarity to the work of civil society and human rights defenders, particularly noting the distinct role and challenges faced by women's civil society, women peacebuilders and rights defenders. Promote a stronger government institutional response to protect human rights defenders and to promote an enabling civic environment. More specifically, express the need to strengthen the Afghanistan Independent Human Rights Commission and support civil society initiatives such as the Human Rights Defenders Committee. This includes identifying concrete measures to promote an enabling environment allowing them to safely and effectively contribute to sustainable peace.
- Reiterate the centrality of women's participation and leadership as a political imperative and a benchmark for meaningful inclusion in the ongoing intra- Afghan peace talks, and longer-term political process. More concretely, promote accountability systems to ensure tangible inclusion and meaningful participation of women and strengthen national and sub-national mechanisms for implementation National Action Plan on UNCSR 1325 (Women, Peace and Security).

Segment B: Reintegrating refugees and returnees

- Promote participatory and sustainable approaches to support safe, voluntary and dignified refugee and IDP return, sustainable reintegration of returnees, in line with ANPDF II commitments, Solutions Strategy for Afghan Refugees (SSAR), Global Compact for Refugees and SDG 10.7.

- Promote refugee and IDP participation in discussion on (assisted) voluntary repatriation processes and voluntary return, share lessons learned of large, successful refugee and IDPs return cases and draw out best practices.
- Improve sustainable return and reintegration, through whole-of-government and whole-of-society approach, to (1) ensure access to rights, essential services and inclusion in government-provided integration schemes, (2) proactively reducing barriers to address the needs of the most vulnerable IDPs, returnees and refugees.
- Broaden return and reintegration dialogue to include regularizing labour migration in the region, as outlined in ANPDF II.
