The poorest countries of the world are the hardest hit by the consequences of climate change. Finland supports developing countries’ climate action through development cooperation. The projects aim to mitigate climate change and to support human communities and natural systems in adapting to and preparing for the changes.

Support in 2019

Multilateral channels

- Finland-IFC Blend Finance for Climate Program (EUR 46 million)
- Green Climate Fund (GCF) (EUR 22.1 million)
- International Fund for Agricultural Development (IFAD) (EUR 13 million)
- International Development Association (IDA) (EUR 9.5 million)
- African Development Fund (AfDF) (EUR 9.2 million)
- The Energy and Environment Partnership, Southern and East Africa (EUR 4.9 million)
- Asian Development Fund (ADF) (EUR 1.8 million)
- Global Environment Facility (GEF) (EUR 1 million)
- Other (EUR 4.2 million)

Bilateral channels

- Finnfund, development finance institution (EUR 21.9 million)
- Regional Energy and Environment Partnership Programme, Mekong Region EEP (EUR 1.7 million)
- National Hydro-Meteorological Service, Vietnam (EUR 1.5 million)
- Forestry and Value Chains Development, Tanzania (EUR 1 million)
- Rural Village Water Resources Management Project, Nepal (EUR 0.8 million)
- Other (EUR 8.1 million)