

Development cooperation appropriations 2018

APPROPRIATIONS IN 2017–2022

ODA ADMINISTERED BY THE FOREIGN MINISTRY

Funds that are administered by the Ministry for Foreign Affairs, which are used, for example for bilateral development cooperation, to support work done by the UN agencies, development banks and Finnish CSOs, and to provide humanitarian aid.

OTHER DEVELOPMENT COOPERATION SPENDING

An estimate of different administrative sectors' expenditure that fall under development cooperation, including part of the expenses arising from the reception of refugees, civilian crisis management expenses, and Finland's contribution to the EU's Development Cooperation Instrument (DCI). This also includes an estimate of the investments made by the Finnish Fund for Industrial Cooperation Finnfund in 2018, which are considered to fall under development cooperation activities and an estimate of other development policy investments.

↑ APPROPRIATIONS IN 2017–2022 (EUR MILLION)

The situation under the state budget for 2018 and the central government's spending limit decision for 2019–2022. The proportion of GNI is estimated to be 0.38% in 2018 and 0.37% in 2019–2021.

FINLAND'S CONTRIBUTIONS TO EU DEVELOPMENT COOPERATION INSTRUMENT

These contributions are granted from the exclusive ODA budget item administered by the Ministry for Foreign Affairs and from other development cooperation appropriations.

163 MEUR

Total 886 MEUR

ODA ADMINISTERED BY THE FOREIGN MINISTRY

OTHER DEVELOPMENT COOPERATION SPENDING

129

COUNTRY-SPECIFIC AND REGIONAL DEVELOPMENT COOPERATION

In some partner countries, support is channelled to programmes and projects conducted jointly by Finland and the partner country government as well as to work in the country or region that is carried out by other actors, such as development finance institutions, UN agencies, research institutes or companies.

169

MULTILATERAL DEVELOPMENT COOPERATION

The World Bank and the African Development Bank play a central role in improving infrastructure and economic growth in the developing countries. In its support of the UN agencies, Finland prioritises the United Nations Population Fund (UNFPA), the United Nations Entity for Gender Equality and the Empowerment of Women (UN Women) and the United Nations Children's Fund (Unicef).

72,5

HUMANITARIAN AID

The need for humanitarian aid has multiplied in recent years, for example because of the conflicts in Syria, Iraq and South Sudan.

65

CIVIL SOCIETY ORGANISATIONS' DEVELOPMENT COOPERATION

More than 80% of the support is channelled to professional CSOs such as Finn Church Aid, WWF and the Trade Union Solidarity Centre of Finland SASK, which conducts development cooperation programmes extending over several years.

33

NON-COUNTRY SPECIFIC DEVELOPMENT COOPERATION

Finland supports developing countries in finding ways to conduct foreign trade and increase their own tax revenue.

19

OTHER ODA ADMINISTERED BY THE FOREIGN MINISTRY

Examples include planning, evaluation and internal audit of development cooperation and concessional credits.

OTHER EXPENSES FALLING UNDER DEVELOPMENT COOPERATION

140,5

CIVILIAN CRISIS MANAGEMENT

An estimate of civilian crisis management expenses falling under development cooperation.

14

FINNFUND

An estimate of the investments made by the Finnish Fund for Industrial Cooperation Finnfund falling under development cooperation activities.

49

EXPENSES ARISING FROM RECEPTION OF REFUGEES

An estimate of such expenses arising from the reception of refugees during the first year of their stay in the country as falling under development cooperation.

32

● Important partner countries to Finland's bilateral cooperation.

● Finland supports also these countries and areas.

Ulkoministeriö
Utrikesministeriet
Ministry for Foreign Affairs of Finland